Newsletter 17 14th December 2018

Dear Parents/Carers,

Thank you to everyone who helped out or attended our Christmas Fayre last Saturday. We sold over 600 raffle tickets and made just over £1500. It was extremely busy and even the local MP, Robert Halfon came to see us. He was very impressed with what he saw and has offered to come back and see us again. Andrew Sinclair from the BBC also attended and spent over an hour filming Robert Halfon and then interviewing him and some of our guests about Brexit.

On Wednesday all the staff and children enjoyed Christmas lunch. We had Christmas Crackers, Roast Turkey Dinner, followed by Ice Cream. The children from the Nursery and the School were extremely well behaved and we all thoroughly enjoyed ourselves. Thank you to Jo and Teresa from Ashlyns for providing a great festive spread!

On Wednesday and Thursday, our two Reception Classes treated us all to amazing performances of 'Whoops-a-Daisy Angel'. Well done to all the children for how confidently they performed on stage. Thank you for the superb costumes that were sent in and we hope you enjoyed the show. Today, children in Nursery invited their parents in for a Christmas Sing-a-Long. Their singing was amazing and I hope you enjoyed it as much as we did.

Next Monday Reception have their Christmas Ball and I know the children are looking forward to dancing, eating and dressing up like Princes and Princesses.

Message from the Friends of Newhall

On behalf of the Friends of Newhall we would like to say a huge thank you to everyone who supported our first ever Christmas Fayre on Saturday. Following on from the request for tombola prizes we were overwhelmed by the generosity of staff, students and parents. We were helped on the day by some marvelous volunteers who we couldn't have done it without. The event was really well attended and there was a lovely atmosphere, even the BBC said how well it had gone and were surprised this was our first event. We wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

As this is the final Newsletter of 2018, I would like to take this opportunity to thank you all for your ongoing support and I would also like to wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year on behalf of all of the staff at Newhall Primary Academy and Nursery.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Debbie Gayler
