

Newhall Primary Academy and Nursery – Half-termly Curriculum Overview

Half Term Spring 1 Year Group Year 3

English	Mathematics	Science
This term we will be reading Alice in Wonderland and	In this half term's White Rose Maths small steps, children	During our science lessons, we will be exploring the focussing on expanding our knowledge of expanded noun	will take the next foot forward in using formal written	importance of balanced diets and how each nutrient phrases to include using adverbials to create chronological	method in multiplying a 2-digit number by one digit. The	supports our body. We will also be investigating how our plots. In addition, we will also be writing instructions	children will learn how to use concrete resources and	muscles work and the comparing our skeleton to those of involving key organisational devices such as imperative	pictorial representations to partition, exchange and regroup	different animals and reptiles. verbs.	numbers. We will also delve into the inverse operation of division, learning how to divide numbers while flexibly portioning and managing divisions that include remainders.
	We will end the half term learning about different types of measure and how to convert different types of measurements.
History	Art & Design	Computing
We will be diving into learning more about the history of	This half term's art unit focuses on the weaving and textile	Children will be learning about different methods of the bronze age and the impact it has had on our lives today	designs of German artist Gunta Stolzl. The children will	communication including e-mail. They will learn using and looking at significance of creating bronze and beaker	investigate the history of weaving alongside having the	artificial e-mail systems with Purple Mash and how to open pots.	opportunity to manipulate materials as they experiment	and respond to e-mails including adding attachments. They with skills of weaving, knotting and plaiting. The children	will learn how to distinguish e-mails that are safe from will explore creating dye patterns which will be added to	spam.
	their woven fabrics as they create a small scale artwork in the style of the German Bauhaus movement.
Music	PE	PSHE
This half term children will be taught by an expert music	In gymnastics children will continue to build routines	Dreams and goals teacher from Essex Music Services. They will be instructed	involving different levels and combination of skills and	Identify people who have faced challenges and achieved in developing their sense of rhythm and patterns. They will	balances. During our dance lessons we will be responding to	their goals.
also begin to learn to play the 'Toot'. The children will learn	a range of stimuli and how we can improvise movements to	Identify my own dreams and ambitions.
to read simple musical notation and play along to backing	them. In addition, we will be following steps within dance	Face new challenges and enjoy working as part of a team.
music as they progress thought the lessons culminating in a	and then improving our fluency and sense of rhythm.	Motivate myself regarding new challenges.
mini in-class concert to the current Year 2 classes.		Recognise obstacles which might hinder by achievements and begin to overcome them.
		Evaluate my learning process.
RE	French
This term we will be looking into Christianity and some of	During our French lessons we will be looking at the names
the miracles they believe Jesus did such as healing a blind	for different musical instruments and phrases to discuss man and representing this through art. We will explore	when listening to music and continuing to understand our what miracles are and applying this to what miracle we	understanding of how to structure phrases in French.
would perform if we could and why.		