

Newhall Primary Academy and Nursery – Half-termly Curriculum Overview

Half Term Summer 2 Year Group 6

English	Mathematics	Science
This half term, English will be a key focus as children	This half term in maths, the children will be consolidating	In science, we are learning about climate change and the prepare for the English writing moderation. They will be	their learning in preparation for secondary school. They will	impact it has on our planet. We are exploring the concept of producing a wide range of extended writing pieces,	apply the knowledge and skills gained throughout Key Stage	a carbon footprint and how everyday activities contribute to including setting descriptions, narratives, recounts, and	2 to real-life scenarios. One focus will be on budgeting,	greenhouse gas emissions. As part of this topic, we are also poems. Throughout the unit, children will develop their	helping children understand how to manage money and	discovering simple and effective ways children can help editing skills, working carefully to improve their writing and	make informed financial decisions. They will also explore	reduce their carbon footprint, such as recycling, using less create polished best pieces that showcase their progress	weights and measures through cooking-related activities.	energy, walking or biking instead of using cars, and being and creativity.	This will support their understanding of practical	mindful of water and food waste. This helps us understand 7	measurement and unit conversions. Additionally, the	how small actions can make a big difference for the children will work on collecting and analysing data to	environment.
	identify patterns and draw conclusions.
Geography	Art & Design	Computing
In geography this half term, our unit is Blue Planet . Children	In art children will also be developing their creativity in by	This half term in computing, the children will be using will explore the world's oceans, focusing on the importance	working in small groups to create their own stop-motion	Purple Mash to develop their understanding of
of the seas, the unique ecosystem of the Great Barrier Reef,	animations inspired by Wallace and Gromit. Using plasticine	spreadsheets. They will learn how to create and edit and the impact climate change is having on marine life.	to design and model their characters, they will plan short	spreadsheets, use formulas, and organise data effectively.
Through this topic, they will gain a deeper understanding of	storylines, set up scenes, and bring their creations to life	The lessons will help them understand how spreadsheets
the role oceans play in our planet's health and the	through the stop-motion technique. This project will help	can be used to solve problems, manage information, and importance of protecting these vital environments	develop their artistic skills, imagination, teamwork, and	support decision-making in real-life situations. These skills importance of protecting these vital environments.	develop their artistic skills, illiagination, teamwork, and importance of protecting these vital environments.	introduce them to the basics of animation.	will provide a strong foundation for future learning in importance of protecting these vital environments.
Music	introduce them to the basics of animation.	will provide a strong foundation for future learning in secondary school and beyond.  PSHE
Music  This half term Year 6 will focus on revision and making	introduce them to the basics of animation.  PE  Next half term, the children will begin preparing for Sports	will provide a strong foundation for future learning in secondary school and beyond.  PSHE  This half term, children will be completing the Changing Me
Music  This half term Year 6 will focus on revision and making exciting decisions about what to perform as part of their	PE  Next half term, the children will begin preparing for Sports Day, with a focus on athletics during their PE lessons. This	will provide a strong foundation for future learning in secondary school and beyond.  PSHE  This half term, children will be completing the Changing Me unit from the Jigsaw PSHE (Personal, Social, Health and
Music  This half term Year 6 will focus on revision and making exciting decisions about what to perform as part of their final music activities. Pupils will reflect on what they've	PE  Next half term, the children will begin preparing for Sports Day, with a focus on athletics during their PE lessons. This will give pupils the opportunity to develop and refine key	will provide a strong foundation for future learning in secondary school and beyond.  PSHE  This half term, children will be completing the Changing Me unit from the Jigsaw PSHE (Personal, Social, Health and Economic) scheme, which focuses on SRE (Sex and
Music  This half term Year 6 will focus on revision and making exciting decisions about what to perform as part of their final music activities. Pupils will reflect on what they've learned throughout the year and apply their skills to	PE  Next half term, the children will begin preparing for Sports Day, with a focus on athletics during their PE lessons. This will give pupils the opportunity to develop and refine key athletic skills such as sprinting, jumping, and throwing. The	will provide a strong foundation for future learning in secondary school and beyond.  PSHE  This half term, children will be completing the Changing Me unit from the Jigsaw PSHE (Personal, Social, Health and Economic) scheme, which focuses on SRE (Sex and Relationships Education). This unit supports pupils in
Music  This half term Year 6 will focus on revision and making exciting decisions about what to perform as part of their final music activities. Pupils will reflect on what they've learned throughout the year and apply their skills to prepare a performance. They will also listen to a range of	PE  Next half term, the children will begin preparing for Sports Day, with a focus on athletics during their PE lessons. This will give pupils the opportunity to develop and refine key athletic skills such as sprinting, jumping, and throwing. The children will build their fitness, coordination, and technique	will provide a strong foundation for future learning in secondary school and beyond.  PSHE  This half term, children will be completing the Changing Me unit from the Jigsaw PSHE (Personal, Social, Health and Economic) scheme, which focuses on SRE (Sex and Relationships Education). This unit supports pupils in understanding the changes that occur as they grow,
Music  This half term Year 6 will focus on revision and making exciting decisions about what to perform as part of their final music activities. Pupils will reflect on what they've learned throughout the year and apply their skills to prepare a performance. They will also listen to a range of Western Classical Music, exploring its features and influence	PE  Next half term, the children will begin preparing for Sports Day, with a focus on athletics during their PE lessons. This will give pupils the opportunity to develop and refine key athletic skills such as sprinting, jumping, and throwing. The children will build their fitness, coordination, and technique while learning about the importance of teamwork,	will provide a strong foundation for future learning in secondary school and beyond.  PSHE  This half term, children will be completing the Changing Me unit from the Jigsaw PSHE (Personal, Social, Health and Economic) scheme, which focuses on SRE (Sex and Relationships Education). This unit supports pupils in understanding the changes that occur as they grow, including physical and emotional changes, developing
Music  This half term Year 6 will focus on revision and making exciting decisions about what to perform as part of their final music activities. Pupils will reflect on what they've learned throughout the year and apply their skills to prepare a performance. They will also listen to a range of Western Classical Music, exploring its features and influence on other genres. As part of their learning, they will revisit	PE  Next half term, the children will begin preparing for Sports Day, with a focus on athletics during their PE lessons. This will give pupils the opportunity to develop and refine key athletic skills such as sprinting, jumping, and throwing. The children will build their fitness, coordination, and technique while learning about the importance of teamwork, perseverance, and sportsmanship. We look forward to	will provide a strong foundation for future learning in secondary school and beyond.  PSHE  This half term, children will be completing the Changing Me unit from the Jigsaw PSHE (Personal, Social, Health and Economic) scheme, which focuses on SRE (Sex and Relationships Education). This unit supports pupils in understanding the changes that occur as they grow, including physical and emotional changes, developing positive body image, and learning about personal
Music  This half term Year 6 will focus on revision and making exciting decisions about what to perform as part of their final music activities. Pupils will reflect on what they've learned throughout the year and apply their skills to prepare a performance. They will also listen to a range of Western Classical Music, exploring its features and influence on other genres. As part of their learning, they will revisit the language of music, including musical terms and	PE  Next half term, the children will begin preparing for Sports Day, with a focus on athletics during their PE lessons. This will give pupils the opportunity to develop and refine key athletic skills such as sprinting, jumping, and throwing. The children will build their fitness, coordination, and technique while learning about the importance of teamwork, perseverance, and sportsmanship. We look forward to seeing the enthusiasm, determination, and energy that	will provide a strong foundation for future learning in secondary school and beyond.  PSHE  This half term, children will be completing the Changing Me unit from the Jigsaw PSHE (Personal, Social, Health and Economic) scheme, which focuses on SRE (Sex and Relationships Education). This unit supports pupils in understanding the changes that occur as they grow, including physical and emotional changes, developing positive body image, and learning about personal boundaries. It is taught in an age-appropriate and sensitive
Music  This half term Year 6 will focus on revision and making exciting decisions about what to perform as part of their final music activities. Pupils will reflect on what they've learned throughout the year and apply their skills to prepare a performance. They will also listen to a range of Western Classical Music, exploring its features and influence on other genres. As part of their learning, they will revisit the language of music, including musical terms and notation, to deepen their understanding. This half term	PE  Next half term, the children will begin preparing for Sports Day, with a focus on athletics during their PE lessons. This will give pupils the opportunity to develop and refine key athletic skills such as sprinting, jumping, and throwing. The children will build their fitness, coordination, and technique while learning about the importance of teamwork, perseverance, and sportsmanship. We look forward to seeing the enthusiasm, determination, and energy that pupils bring to their athletics practice, and we are excited to	will provide a strong foundation for future learning in secondary school and beyond.  PSHE  This half term, children will be completing the Changing Me unit from the Jigsaw PSHE (Personal, Social, Health and Economic) scheme, which focuses on SRE (Sex and Relationships Education). This unit supports pupils in understanding the changes that occur as they grow, including physical and emotional changes, developing positive body image, and learning about personal boundaries. It is taught in an age-appropriate and sensitive way, helping children to build confidence, respect for
Music  This half term Year 6 will focus on revision and making exciting decisions about what to perform as part of their final music activities. Pupils will reflect on what they've learned throughout the year and apply their skills to prepare a performance. They will also listen to a range of Western Classical Music, exploring its features and influence on other genres. As part of their learning, they will revisit the language of music, including musical terms and notation, to deepen their understanding. This half term offers a chance to celebrate their musical journey before	PE  Next half term, the children will begin preparing for Sports Day, with a focus on athletics during their PE lessons. This will give pupils the opportunity to develop and refine key athletic skills such as sprinting, jumping, and throwing. The children will build their fitness, coordination, and technique while learning about the importance of teamwork, perseverance, and sportsmanship. We look forward to seeing the enthusiasm, determination, and energy that	will provide a strong foundation for future learning in secondary school and beyond.  PSHE  This half term, children will be completing the Changing Me unit from the Jigsaw PSHE (Personal, Social, Health and Economic) scheme, which focuses on SRE (Sex and Relationships Education). This unit supports pupils in understanding the changes that occur as they grow, including physical and emotional changes, developing positive body image, and learning about personal boundaries. It is taught in an age-appropriate and sensitive way, helping children to build confidence, respect for themselves and others, and the skills they need to navigate
Music  This half term Year 6 will focus on revision and making exciting decisions about what to perform as part of their final music activities. Pupils will reflect on what they've learned throughout the year and apply their skills to prepare a performance. They will also listen to a range of Western Classical Music, exploring its features and influence on other genres. As part of their learning, they will revisit the language of music, including musical terms and notation, to deepen their understanding. This half term	PE  Next half term, the children will begin preparing for Sports Day, with a focus on athletics during their PE lessons. This will give pupils the opportunity to develop and refine key athletic skills such as sprinting, jumping, and throwing. The children will build their fitness, coordination, and technique while learning about the importance of teamwork, perseverance, and sportsmanship. We look forward to seeing the enthusiasm, determination, and energy that pupils bring to their athletics practice, and we are excited to	will provide a strong foundation for future learning in secondary school and beyond.  PSHE  This half term, children will be completing the Changing Me unit from the Jigsaw PSHE (Personal, Social, Health and Economic) scheme, which focuses on SRE (Sex and Relationships Education). This unit supports pupils in understanding the changes that occur as they grow, including physical and emotional changes, developing positive body image, and learning about personal boundaries. It is taught in an age-appropriate and sensitive way, helping children to build confidence, respect for

RE	French	Key Information for Half-term
Next half term in RE, the children will explore the	Next half term in French, the children will be	The Year the children will have PE lessons on a question: Do beliefs in Karma, Samsara, and Moksha	recapping and consolidating the key topics and	Wednesday and Friday. Please ensure they have their help Sanatanis lead good lives? This unit falls under	language skills they have covered throughout Year 6.	PE Kit in school on these days.
the theme Beliefs into Action and will focus on the	This will include revisiting vocabulary, sentence	The children will visit the Library on a Thursday; please concepts of cause and consequence, life after death,	structures, and grammar points introduced earlier in	ensure they bring books in everyday to read and enjoy and the impact of belief on daily life. Pupils will learn	the year. Through a range of interactive activities,	while at school.
how these key Hindu beliefs influence the way	games, and conversations, pupils will reinforce their	Homework will be set and marked every Wednesday.
Sanatanis live, make decisions, and treat others.	understanding and build confidence in speaking,	The children will have a Maths booklet to complete,
Through discussion, reflection, and case studies,	listening and reading in French. The focus will be on	Grammar questions (found on Teams), spellings children will consider how spiritual ideas can shape	using familiar language in new contexts, helping to	(found on Teams), Accelerated Reader tests and TTRS.
moral choices and personal behaviour, encouraging	strengthen retention and fluency.	Spellings will be tested on a Wednesday.
thoughtful connections between belief and action.		